

Should we be using more renewable or non-renewable sources to generate our electricity?

Team Members:

Arguing for non-renewables: We should be using more non-renewables, such as coal and gas, to generate our electricity.

Research and write your main points below. Remember you will use these points to persuade everyone to agree with your point of view.

Our Main Points